Preparing for Worship with Music

Welcome

Opening Prayer

Holy One, as we celebrate this communion meal, we may envision ourselves at the table with the disciples. In the growing darkness we too struggle to understand Jesus's willingness to give his life, try to feel his pain on Gethsemane, and agonize over the suffering of the world that can only be healed by your boundless love. May we never grow weary of coming to this table. May we always come to this meal with fresh eyes and open hearts, knowing you offer this meal to all persons, without exception. May we be filled again and again by this holy communion, taken together in remembrance of your sacrifice and expectation of your resurrection and your kingdom of love on Earth. Amen.
